TRAIN FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

If you are looking for a fun way to keep your kids busy these April school holidays, why not take the whole family along to the Great Railway Journeys of Australia exhibition at Revolutions – Whiteman Park’s Transport Heritage Centre.

Whiteman Park manager Steve Lowe said the exhibition tells the story of railways in Australia and how railways have linked the nation.

“We have organised special activities for kids that will run every day during the April holidays,” Mr Lowe said.

“Admission to the exhibition is free and is open every day between 10am and 4pm.

“While visiting Revolutions, families can also take a ride on the Bennett Brook Railway, the great railway journey of Whiteman Park!”

Running at Revolutions for a limited time until Sunday May 10 the exhibition will continue on to Townsville.

The exhibition is made possible by Queensland Rail and Great Southern Railway and supported by Visions of Australia, an Australian Government program which provides funding assistance for the development and touring of cultural material across Australia.

Railway fun is just one of the many school holiday activities available for families these school holidays with plenty to always see and do at Whiteman Park.
